

MARCH 2023

We have all been heartbroken to hear of the death of Sharon, our very own Fluffy. She passed away on Sunday, February 12, 2023. There will be no funeral at her request.

Emails are sent from the club email to inform you about happenings on our Mountain. Currently, you should have received:

Fence email advising the dates the work will start, please notify Ron W. when you are able to help.

Robie Creek Run will be organized by Todd this year. The email explains how to volunteer online. Difference from last year is No vaccines required.

Please send notes to Ron W or Todd with any questions.

Activities for 2023 goal is to set up a calendar for every month so we all can plan our summer on the Mountain. Gail and Jane will be the contacts, send any date you can host a activity to bareidaho@gmail.com and it will be forwarded to them. Thank you, Gail and Jane, for volunteering.

Lots for 2023: We have 2 open lots at this time which have been offered to the Lot List participants.

Casino Night on the Mountain Pay-out: At our casino night last summer Ed and I won a week at one of Rhea and Dave's condo's in Somerton, AZ – a small community just South of Yuma. We were able to make it there a little over a week before Christmas. We invited another couple to go with us and share this week in the fun two-bedroom condo. We timed our visit to be there in time for Somerton's annual Tamale Festival. The whole week was so fun. The condo was so comfortable and decorated in hot peppers. Rhea has it totally stocked with pots and pans and dishes and sheets and towels. All we had to do was bring the food and move in and enjoy. The Tamale festival was great fun with wonderful entertainment and amazing food. If Rhea puts a week at her condo up for auction again next summer, go for it. There are flea markets and great shopping. Algodones, Mexico is only a short drive away and the food at the Tamale festival is an additional activity. Thank you, Rhea for a wonderful memory!

Not having a lot of news from the mountain I decided to do a quick survey of what WEATHER our members are enjoying right now.

Sky: I'm in Nampa and it's blustery and COLD!

Donna: Cold and Windy (Washington State)

Ann: Eric and I are in Southern California. Due to all the rain the California Poppies are in Super Bloom. Today though, there is a prediction of snow down to 1000 ft. Glen Eden is at 1300, so there's a chance.

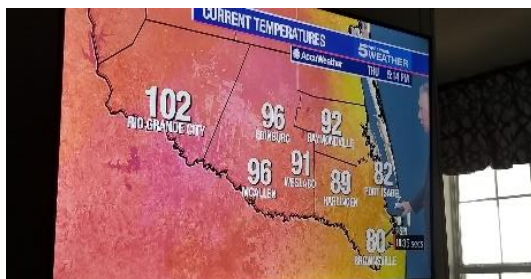

Lisa: Boise is enjoying a late winter with a light dusting of snow and blustery winds.

Rhea: Weather yesterday was horrible with wind as high as 50 mph are over! Today is just cool with winds at 15-20 mph. It is supposed to warm up now with nice weather hitting this weekend. This is Somerton AZ, just South of Yuma.

Debbie: Although more wind and cooler temperatures, the views are beautiful. We love our new winter home here at Sky Valley Resort (California). They also offer RV spaces here. Come Visit.

Brent: As I was watching the national weather this evening. I thought I should share something other than snow and hard winds with you all. Here are a couple pictures that will let you know what Kathy and I are having suffer with. The first two are from the weather here in Edinburg, Texas.

This one is from our driveway a couple of nights ago. Hopefully these don't make anyone feel bad. Stay warm and well and see you on the Mountain in a few weeks.

Susan: Tuesday night (Arizona) we had winds gusts up to 60 mph.

Though the winds have slowed down to 15-20 mph, it's a cold wind, not fun to be out in. It rained this afternoon, and we enjoyed this gorgeous rainbow. Storm #2 (this week) is moving in as I type this on Thursday night and storm #3 is supposed to hit this weekend.

From Trail Notes:

8/7/17 Thank you for making such a wonderful place to come and reflect on Gods beauty.

9/11/18, I love to hike nude! Nice breeze today, you know you're alive. Headed down to the hot tub, Bruce

Ken & Cherie will be on the mountain early this year. We asked Jason and Sky to send us pictures to see how the mountain looks. They took these pictures of clubhouse and our home.

Clubhouse

Our cabin

Think we can move on March 17 or 18? Pictures were taken March 25, 2023